

THE SINGLE BEST RESTAURANT IN EVERY CASINO ON THE STRIP

So you've found yourself in Las Vegas for one night... in one casino... and don't have the time, funds, or energy to explore the entire Strip. Just what do you do? Easy, you visit the best damn restaurant on the property and eat like a king. With this in mind, we went ahead and did the hard work for you, picking out the very best place to dine at every casino on the Strip. The choices may not always be the most fancy or most expensive, but each one is the most interesting and delicious choice for its given casino.

And since blowing money on food and blowing money at the tables go hand in hand, we're only talking about casinos, not resorts that don't offer gaming -- like the Four Seasons, Trump International, and Delano.

Dig in...

Runner-up: Flour & Barley... because even though you've technically stepped away from the LINQ casino and are now walking down the LINQ promenade, you're eager to wash down a slice of pizza with an authentic cask beer.
